Inquiries

A record of access to your credit file is created by posting inquiries to your credit file. An inquiry will include the name of the entity that accessed your credit file and a phone number that you can call if you have questions about the access. Two types of inquiries may be posted on your credit file; hard and soft inquiries. Soft inquiries are visible only to you and do not affect credit scores. Hard inquiries are visible to any authorized recipient of your credit file and may affect credit scores.
